Per Section 20 of Chapter 2011-69, Laws of Florida, $33,972.48 has been appropriated to the School District of Okaloosa County for the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT) liquidated damages for fiscal year 2010-2011. This appropriation is to be provided to public schools for costs associated with the delayed FCAT results.

Schools were asked to provide personnel and operating expenditures related to delayed FCAT results to Ms. McKinley's office. This information was then reported to the Department of Education. The amounts reported by each school have been summarized on the attached spreadsheet. These schools have received a corresponding allocation in their discretionary reserves - 1010.9890.0987.Center.

Should you have any questions or require additional information, please contact Julie Perry at 833-5850.
