

Okaloosa Reading Council

Okaloosa County, Florida

Shoot for the Moon!

Join us for our Literacy Conference!

Okaloosa Reading Council is always working hard to bring you authors, workshops and trainings. This year, we are shooting for the moon and bringing you a literacy conference with a keynote speech by author, Mary Bigler and several break-out sessions to choose from! OCSD's own Lisa Morris and Houghton Mifflin Publishing are just two of the breakout session presenters and we are currently working to secure even more!

Sincerely,

Angelle Crosby, President

When: Saturday, April 14th, 8:30-TBA

Where: Bluewater Elementary

Who: All OCSD is invited to attend, ORC members will receive a discounted registration and first opportunity to register. See below!

More details to come!

Be on the look-out for upcoming events in late fall and winter. Members get in free!

This conference will be offered on mylearningplan.com!

Sessions planned include Creating Strategic Readers in the Secondary Classrooms, Good Books= Good Times by Mary Bigler and Text Complexity by Houghton Mifflin.

Members pay $15; non-members pay $20. (complimentary membership is included)

Literacy Conference

ORC Conference Registration: Send to Eleanor Harrington, Bob Sikes

Name _____

School _____ Date Sent _____

Enclosed _____ cash _____ check